

Law Fulfilled

Matthew 5:17-20

Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.

For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled.

Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:17-20

A stylized illustration of an open book. The pages are a light cream or off-white color and are completely blank. The book is bound in a dark brown, textured material, likely leather or cloth. The binding is visible in the center where the two pages meet. The edges of the pages are slightly irregular, giving it a hand-drawn or artistic feel. The overall shape is rectangular, with the pages fanning out slightly at the top and bottom edges.

For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.
