

For he grew up before
him like a young plant,
and like a root out of
dry ground;

he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, and no beauty that we should desire him.

He was
despised and
rejected by men; a man of
sorrows, and
acquainted
with grief;

and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he has
borne our griefs
and carried our sorrows; yet we
esteemed him
stricken, smitten
by God, and
afflicted.

But he was
pierced for our
transgressions;
he was crushed
for our iniquities;

upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned -- every one -- to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth.

By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people?

And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no

violence,
and there
was no
deceit in
his mouth.
