

Saul Makes a Big Change

Saul was on a trip to Damascus. He wanted to hurt Christians. One the way, he saw Jesus in a bright light. Jesus told him he didn't want him to hurt Christians. Saul was sorry for hurting Christians. Jesus told him to go to Damascus and wait. Saul waited until Ananias came to see him. Ananias told Saul to get up and be baptized. Saul was baptized. He stopped doing bad things. He started teaching people about Jesus. He even changed his name to Paul.

Print on Cardstock. Print pictures of Saul/Paul on Cardstock. Cut out Saul/Paul pictures on border. Fold each in half like a book. Stack Saul "book" on top of Paul "book". Glue together. Glue top of glued book and bottom of glued book on bottom half of this page (covering up these words). This should make a flap that moves back and forth. During class, children can glue their large S to complete Saul's name, flip the picture and glue their large P to complete Paul's name.
