

The Church Begins

Before Jesus went to Heaven, He told His friends, the apostles, to wait in Jerusalem. They did. While they were there, they heard a great wind. Then, tongues of fire appeared over their heads. All of the apostles could speak in different languages. They began to preach to all the people in Jerusalem. They taught the people about Jesus.

Acts 2:1-38

Print fire strip and background page on cardstock. Cut out fire strip, fold back on center line (horizontally) and glue to make a stiff slide. Carefully cut out tongues of fire on background page with xacto knife. Glue a half sheet of cardstock on the back of background page making a pocket for the fire slide to slide through.
